

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP Adds Attorney Denise R. Case as Of Counsel; Susan Zimmerman Joins the Firm as Paralegal

PORTLAND, ORE., June 26, 2012 – Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP, a newly formed real estate and land use law firm, announced today it has hired Denise R. Case as Of Counsel in the firm’s Real Estate and Corporate practice groups, and Susan Zimmerman as a paralegal. Both professionals will be located in the firm’s headquarters office at 111 SW Columbia Street, Suite 1100, Portland, OR 97201.

Denise Case (of Counsel) has extensive experience in transactional real estate and commercial finance. She has represented developers in the acquisition of property, negotiated the sale of multiple industrial properties, and assisted borrowers with acquisition and construction loans. She has also helped regional and community banks negotiate and document deeds-in-lieu of foreclosure, forbearance agreements and the disposition and leasing of owned real estate. Ms. Case has been recognized by her peers as an Oregon Super Lawyers “Rising Star” in Real Estate since 2009.

Prior to joining Radler White, Ms. Case was an associate with Ball Janik LLP. She also practiced law at Buchanan Ingersoll PC in Philadelphia, where she represented developers, landlords, borrowers and national lending institutions in corporate and real estate transactions.

Ms. Case is currently Chair of the Forms Committee of the Commercial Association of Brokers. She is also a participant on the Oregon Women Lawyers Advance Sheet Committee and is a contributor to the publication.

Ms. Case earned her J.D. in 2003 from Rutgers University Law School, where she was Notes and Casenotes Editor for the Rutgers Law Journal. She earned her B.A. in Sociology from the University of Washington in 2000. She is admitted to practice law in Oregon, Washington and Pennsylvania.

Susan Zimmerman (Paralegal) has substantial experience in real estate and business transactions and assists with entity formations, mergers, dissolutions, corporate governance, drafting and organizing documents for real estate acquisitions and dispositions, due diligence, title and survey review, and other general real estate and corporate matters. She also has considerable knowledge of condominium formation, planned communities and the representation of condominium and homeowner associations.

Prior to joining Radler White, Ms. Zimmerman was a paralegal with Ball Janik LLP. Before moving to Oregon in 2004, she practiced law in California for several years, working in-house for a private asset management firm, but is not admitted to practice law in Oregon.

Ms. Zimmerman earned her J.D. in 1993 from Pepperdine University School of Law. She earned her B.A. degree from James Madison University in 1989.

ABOUT RADLER WHITE PARKS & ALEXANDER LLP

Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP (www.radlerwhite.com) brings together a highly regarded team of real estate, land use and corporate attorneys with decades of experience and a strong track record of success for clients. The firm offers strategic counsel and transactional support for real estate and land use projects, representing both private developers and public clients. Working from offices in Portland and Bend, Oregon, our attorneys have helped clients throughout the state envision and complete groundbreaking projects.

CONTACT:

MAP Communications

John Mangan 503.701.7503

john@map-communications.com