Jack T. Conners Named Partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP

PORTLAND, ORE., JULY 19, 2017 – Portland real estate and land use law firm Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP is pleased to announce that Jack T. Conners has been named a partner in the firm. Mr. Conners joined Radler White in 2015 and is a member of the firm’s Real Estate practice group. He is a member of the bar in both Oregon and California.

“Jack has strengthened our real estate practice and earned the high regard of the firm’s clients,” said Dina Alexander, a Founding Partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP. “We are proud to welcome him as a partner.”

Jack Conners represents real estate private equity firms, institutional investors, developers, real estate management companies and other property owners in a wide variety of real estate transactions. He has assisted clients with acquisitions and dispositions, financing, property management, development, easements and joint ventures. He has also represented tenants and landlords in office, retail, industrial, warehouse and distribution, and medical services leasing transactions.

Prior to joining Radler White, Mr. Conners practiced real estate law with Ball Janik LLP, in the Portland office of K&L Gates LLP, and in the Los Angeles office of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky and Walker LLP.

Mr. Conners received his J.D. from the University of Southern California School of Law. Before entering law school, he worked as a senior accountant with Arthur Andersen, LLP. He earned his Certified Public Accountant (CPA) designation in the state of California, achieving high honors on the uniform CPA examination.

Mr. Conners earned his B.S. in Business Administration/Accounting from Portland State University, where he played wide receiver for the PSU football team, earning both a Business Student/Intercollegiate Athlete Scholarship and an NCAA Athletic Scholarship in football.
