

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP Attorney Michael Fillingame
Admitted to Oregon Bar

PORTLAND, Ore., September 19, 2018 – Portland real estate and land use law firm Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP is pleased to announce that attorney Michael Fillingame has been approved for admission to the Oregon Bar. Mr. Fillingame joined the firm in January 2018 and serves as an Associate in the firm’s Real Estate and Corporate practice groups.

“Michael is an excellent addition to the Radler White team,” said Dina Alexander, a Founding Partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP. “His business acumen and high level of professionalism make him a valuable member of our Corporate and Real Estate practice groups.”

Mr. Fillingame focuses his practice on a wide range of real estate transactions, including the acquisition, development, financing, leasing and disposition of real estate. He also has substantial experience representing clients in general corporate transactional matters, including the formation and structuring of joint ventures, private equity transactions, mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance.

Prior to joining Radler White, Mr. Fillingame practiced for five years at two large law firms in Houston, Texas, where he represented clients in a variety of industries, including energy, healthcare, manufacturing and technology.

Mr. Fillingame received his J.D. in 2013 from the University of Houston Law Center, where he was Executive Editor of the Houston Law Review and an American Arbitration Association Research Scholar. During law school, Michael served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Frances H. Stacy and the Honorable George C. Hanks, Jr. in the United States Court for the Southern District of Texas. He was also a Teaching Assistant in Business Law & Ethics within the Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston.

Mr. Fillingame received his B.S. from the University of Oregon in 2007, earning departmental honors in both Economics and Political Science. While serving as an elementary school teacher in the Teach for America program, he earned his Master of Arts in Teaching from The Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Fillingame then spent one year teaching 9th grade algebra in a Houston public charter school whose mission is to help low-income Houstonians prepare for and graduate from college. He continued to serve as a substitute teacher in the same school while earning his law degree.
